DIGNITARIES ATTEND FUNERAL FOR DULLES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 (UPI)

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew and hundreds of other past and present Government officials attended a funeral service here this morning for Allen W. Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, who died Wednesday at the age of 75. A private burial service was held in Baltimore.

President Nixon was prevented from attending by an all-day meeting with the National Security Council. He sent a large wreath of red and white carnations to the church.

During rites at the Georgetown Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Russell C. Stroup eulogized Mr. Dulles as a Christian gentleman in the tradition of Thomas Jefferson.

"In the midst of personal tragedy and public disaster he stood firm," Mr. Stroup said. "He was the chief architect of a new kind of protection devised for the free world."

Among those at the service were Senators John Sherman Cooper, of Kentucky, and Clifford P. Case, of New Jersey; former Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, who is now president of the World Bank, and U. Alexis Johnson, who represented the Department of State.

Others were Sir Patrick Dean, the British Ambassador; Frank Corner, for New Zealand; Sir Keith and Lady Waller, for Australia, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Edgar Richee, for Canada.
